

Supporting Medical Record

Supporting Medical Record

Associated with historical reference HIST-UCLA-83855-2010

Historical Reference

HIST-UCLA-83855-2010

Name

NAIF ABDULLAH R ALHARBI

Student / Member No.

83855

Reference Date

05/14/2010

Record Information

Date(s) of Service / Treatment Period

05/14/2010 – 04/18/2014

Department / Service

Psychiatry / Mental Health Services – Arthur Ashe Student Health & Wellness Center, UCLA

Clinician / Provider Name

Michael Chen, MD

Clinical Details

Clinical Summary / Diagnosis

Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
Psychiatric evaluation and follow-up for symptoms related to Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), including difficulty sustaining attention and concentration, distractibility, difficulty organizing and prioritizing tasks, difficulty initiating and completing tasks, shifting between tasks before completion, forgetfulness, and difficulty following through with activities requiring sustained attention or multiple sequential steps. Symptoms affected academic and daily functioning, particularly tasks requiring sustained concentration, organization, time management, and attention to detail.

Treatment / Medication History

Adderall XR 30 mg (Mixed Amphetamine Salts Extended-Release Capsules) —
Take 1 capsule by mouth once daily. Do not crush or chew capsules.

Additional Notes (Optional)

To be completed by the institution.

Institutional Verification

Completed / Verified by

Michael Chen

Title / Credentials

MD

Date

08/05/2026

Signature

Clinic Stamp / Official Seal (if applicable)

MICHAEL
CHEN

This record supports the historical reference shown above.

Patient-managed reference page.
This website is not hosted by UCLA.